Nine passengers were injured and 368 were shaken today when a Boston & Maine train, running as a local from Reading Highlands to North station, side-swiped a freight locomotive in East Somerville yards.

Another accident which delayed Boston-bound commuters occurred in Commonwealth avenue, Allston, where a runaway Boston Elevated car rolled a dozen blocks down hill from Summit avenue across traffic-crowded Harvard avenue.

Most seriously injured in the railroad train crash was Miss Evelyn Wilson of Rockland avenue, Malden. A doctor treated

Father Pays $10,000; Fails to Get Boy

PRINCETON, Fla., May 31—A packet of $10,000 in small bills was dropped in a country road today in an effort to ransom five-year-old James Bailey Cash, Jr., from kidnapers who seized him in his sleep Saturday night.

The senior Cash, who owns a string of filling stations in this farming community, tossed the currency from his car on a solitary drive before dawn at sight of blinking headlights and a hail from the side of the road—signals specified in a ransom note.

He returned in high hopes of regaining his son by noon, but as the hour passed apparently without a sign from the abductors grave fear was felt for the lad's safety.

The mother was reported prostrated.

A crowd of some 300 persons, mostly overalled truck farmers and citrus growers, gathered outside the Cash apartment building and filling station on the main highway and discussed forming posses to search the region.

With the countryside indignant, threats to lynch the kidnappers if they are captured were heard frequently, and county authorities were offered the aid of National Guardsmen to protect the ab-

Dolan, Pals 'Out'

But in Jail Yard, That Is

Edmund L. Dolan, Robert Dinsmore and J. Walter Quinn, serving two and one-half years for contempt of court, were enjoying the grass in the yard today at Charles street jail.

Dolan did the mowing, Dinsmore the weed-snatching and Quinn the bush clipping. This afternoon Dinsmore piloted the lawnmower.

The weather was good. All three worked up zestful appetites for the noon fare of baked beans, bread and coffee.

JEWS Join in World War Against Communism

Special to Boston Evening American

TORONTO, May 31—B'nai B'rith, largest and oldest Jewish fraternal organization in the world, today pledged itself against Communism and other undemocratic forces in the world.

Ratifying a resolution adopted at the triennial convention of B'nai B'rith, District No. 1 convention approved a resolution introduced by Judge A. K. Cohen of Boston. In discussing the resolution, Judge Cohen said:

"The great masses of the Jewish people are faithful to the religious teachings of their fathers. Judaism is a part of their life. In it they find consolation and hope. They believe in its precepts and in its prophecies.

"Communism has

JUDGE A. K. COHEN

fought unrelentingly against the religious faith of the Jew. A Communist who was a Jew is now an apostate. Communism would destroy religious faith. If Communism were to rule, it would destroy Judaism and Christianity. There are some Communists who were born Jews, just as there are Communists who were born Protestants and Catholics, but it is unjust for this reason to accuse either one of these religious sects with the responsibility of Communism.

"Above all, I make this appeal to Jew and non-Jew of North America—our American ideal must be maintained, unswayed by any foreign 'isms'.

Mortal Enemies

"Communism, Fascism and Nazism are the mortal enemies of democracy. Anti-Semitism has been the tool and the entering wedge in the destruction of the modern European republics. Anti-Semitism and democracy are incompatible.

JUDGE DAVID A. ROSE

"One true to traditions of America will not permit these superstitions to fowl its altar.

"High above our altar is engraven the American creed, ever lighted by the eternal fire of patriotic devotion:

"All men are created equal.

Creed Adopted

"Life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness are inalienable rights.

"Free exercise of religion is guaranteed.

"The privileges and immunities of citizens shall not be abridged.

"To bring into this shrine any foreign 'isms,' whether Communism, Fascism or Nazism, is idolatry.

"The above quotations have always represented the feeling and objective of the B'nai B'rith and are now solemnly declared to be the expressed sense of this convention."

"Judge David A. Rose, Boston, director of anti-defamation league for District 1, read the report.

Chinese Victors In Spectacular Battle in Air

HANKOW, May 31 (AP)—Fifty Chinese warplanes today met a raiding Japanese air squadron near Hankow and in spectacular combat prevented the invaders from reaching this provisional capital of China.

Chinese air headquarters reported that 15 of the total of 36 Japanese planes were shot down, while only one Chinese plane failed to return safely to its base.

(In Shanghai Japanese said 30 planes made the raid, shot down 18 Chinese planes and heavily bombed the Hankow air field. They admitted one Japanese plane was missing.)

Air Bombs Kill 430 Near Barcelona

BARCELONA, May 31 (AP)—At least 430 persons were killed today in an insurgent air raid on the town of Granollers, 16 miles north of Barcelona. Many bodies were taken from the ruins and authorities believed 100 more still were buried.

Forty bombs were dropped by five tri-motored bombers, 12 of them plunging into the market square at its most crowded hour. Most of the victims were women and children.

Czechs Call Boys Of 6 to War Duty

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, May 31 (AP)—While piteous for international sympathy and assurances of support, Czechs nevertheless are relying primarily on themselves to prevent dismemberment of this post-war republic by Germany and encircling neighbors.

Publication last night of decrees calling for compulsory military, pre-military or civil air defense training of the whole population between the ages of six and 60 was another step in the direction of self-help.

BOYS, GIRLS OF 6

The compulsory military training decrees provided:

Seventy hours military training annually for boys from six to 17, not in school, and 90 hours annually thereafter until they enter military service.

Forty hours first aid and air defense training for girls six to 21 and 30 hours annually thereafter until the age of 30.

Men and women 30 to 60 liable for 90 hours annually of civil air defense training.

Authorization to the military authorities to erect special training camps and provide preliminary instruction in marksmanship and advanced courses in handling all modern weapons.

Meanwhile conversations designed to achieve a compromise agreement between Germans and Czechs were expected to be resumed today, with Premier Hodza members of parliament.

Franco Planes, Motor Columns Attack Valencia

HENDAYE, France, (AT the Spanish Frontier), May 31 (AP)—Insurgent warplanes rained bombs on Valencia today in a combined land and air offensive against the former provisional capital of the Spanish government.

Reports said insurgent bombers appeared over the city last night and continued their attack until early this morning.

Northwest of Valencia Insurgent Generalissimo Franco's motorized columns fought their way down the highway from Teruel. Other columns struck over the mountains in a general advance along the front from Teruel to the sea.

Death Halts Exile to Hitler

Miami Sweetheart Gets N. Y. Deportee's Last Letter

NEW YORK, May 31 (AP)—This is the story Albert Heinz said his sweetheart would see in the newspapers—if he died.

The body of Heinz, a young seaman who had been brought from Miami, Fla., for deportation to Germany, was found floating in the Hudson river off Hoboken, N. J.

In his pocket was a letter addressed to Lou Annice Summers of Miami.

"Dear Honey," it began. "They are taking me away from you, from America and from all the happiness which you have given me.

"They will send me back to Germany, but I never will get there . . . I love you like I never did before. I have cried so that I have no more tears left.

"Whatever happens from now on may cost me my life, but I will not let anyone take me away from you alive. If I die you will read it in the newspapers. If I am alive you will hear from me."

Then, in a postscript, he wrote:

"I gave up my country, Germany, for America and its honorable flag, for its freedom and history, and for my girl from Mississippi.

"They didn't believe what I said. They send me back to Hitler. But I will prove, alive or dead, my honesty and the mistake they make. Yours forever, Albert."

Enclosed with the letter, dated April 6, was a warrant for his arrest on a charge of assault, issued in Miami on Christmas Day, 1937, on the complaint of Louis J. Summers.

There was no indication of the relationship between Lou Annice Summers and the man who signed the assault complaint.

Hearst Papers Aid Red Survey

Almost a year ago—as long ago as June 27, 1937, to be exact—the Boston Evening American and Sunday Advertiser bared Communist activities here in recruiting Boston boys for the Spanish Red army.

This was recalled today as members of the Legislature awaited the report of the special commission on "isms" headed by Senator Sybil H. Holmes of Brookline.

Many pages of this report are devoted to the commission's belated findings with regard to Spanish Red recruiting here—but even these are based, practically 100 per cent, on the exclusive series of articles by Captain Alvin Halpern, published in the Boston Evening American and the Boston Sunday Advertiser last month.

6 NAMED HERE

Captain Halpern's articles confirmed the disclosures contained in the Boston Sunday Advertiser's copyrighted stories of almost a year ago.

On June 27, 1937, the Boston Sunday Advertiser carried a front page story under the headline—

"NAME 46 SPAIN RECRUITS HERE."

This story read, in part:

"Names of 46 New Englanders, who enlisted in the Spanish Loyalist cause, most of them at recruiting stations operated here under Communist auspices, were revealed to the Boston Sunday Advertiser yesterday by a former Communist sympathizer.

"Operatives of the local Department of Justice, during six weeks of investigation, it was learned, located the actual headquarters of the Communist controlled re-

Nazis Gag Duce Air Fleet Schuschnigg In Tribute to Fiancee Pope, 81 Today

COUNTRESS VERA

VIENNA, May 31 (AP)—Countess Vera Fugger von Habenhause, under the watchful eye of detectives, nervously supervised furniture packers today at Belvedere Castle which, until May 28, had been the home of her fiance, the fallen Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg.

The platinum blonde countess, in a dark blue dress, became very agitated when an Associated Press correspondent addressed her.

"Please go," she pleaded. "I am not permitted to talk."

Schuschnigg left the castle Saturday night in company of German secret police for a destination vaguely described as "somewhere north."

The countess followed him in another car and then returned to supervise removal of his belongings.

A Nazi press official complained today he could not sleep nights because of persistent questions as to Schuschnigg's whereabouts.

CASTEL GANDOLFO, May 31 (INS)—A fleet of nine Italian airplanes circled over Castel Gandolfo in formation today as Premier Mussolini's tribute to Pope Pius on the celebration of his 81st birthday.

Hundreds of congratulatory telegrams flowed in upon the Pontiff as he became the 17th of history's 261 popes to live beyond 80.

The Pope's close associates said he was in better health than a year ago, although he suffers increasingly from asthma and insomnia.

The Pontiff spent most of the morning receiving his usual official callers and reading many of the messages sent him.

Pope Pius was born Achille Ratti at Milan on May 31, 1857.

The German ambassador to the Holy See was one of the many diplomats sending congratulations to the Pope. Premier Mussolini sent his tribute in the form of a squadron of nine military planes, which flew in formation over the Papal villa.

Appearing briefly on the balcony of his home, the Pontiff said:

"This is a beautiful day. It is pleasant to have a birthday under such auspices."

Mercury at 41.4 As June Nears

Boston stumbled on the threshold of June today and landed in the midst of some fall weather.

Light frosts and freezing conditions damaged some crops in inland districts.

The mercury in Boston dived to 41.4. The normal for the day is 62. Just a year ago today it was 93.

RICHMOND, Va., May 31 — A guest at the Country Club of Virginia surveyed the 152-yard par-3 bridge hole, and asked Caddy Bobby Rogers' advice about the proper club.

"A No. 6, sir," Bobby replied promptly.

The guest measured the stiff wind and said he couldn't get home with the No. 6, Bobby insisted. "Well, if you think so, let's see you hit one in the green."

Bobby scored a near hole in one.

High Court Hits Sec'y Wallace

WASHINGTON, May 31 (INS)—In a precedent-shattering action, aimed directly at Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, the Supreme Court today denied the government's petition for rehearing in the Kansas City stockyards case.

Although it usually merely notes a denial of rehearing petitions, today it delivered a formal four-page opinion by the court as a whole.

Without mentioning directly the name of Secretary Wallace or Solicitor-General Robert H. Jackson, who filed the petition for rehearing, the high court vigorously denied contentions of both officials.

Justice Black again was a lone dissenter, as in the original decision. Justices Cardozo and Reed did not participate.

LABOR BOARD WINS

In other important actions, the court, which adjourned until October 3:

1.—It gave the National Labor Relations Board full authority to vacate its "unfair labor practices" degree in Republic Steel Corporation case and to reopen it. The opinion also assured the board of power to reopen Ford, Inland Steel and Heins cases.

2.—Upheld the department of agriculture's order reducing rates charged by the Denver Union stockyards company.

3.—Denied the petition of Remington-Rand, Inc., employees for review of national labor relations order for reinstatement of 4000 strikers. Also denied company's petition for rehearing.

4.—Granted rehearing in General Talking Pictures case, which reopens whole question of the extent of patent monopolies.

SILENT ON MOONEY

Surprising and disappointing to friends of Thomas J. Mooney, internationally known labor prisoner, was the fact the court's order list contained no reference to his petition for review of a California supreme court decision denying him freedom from San Quentin Prison.

Contending he is innocent of complicity in the San Francisco Preparedness Day parade bombing outrage of 1916, Mooney sought release from his life sentence on a writ of habeas corpus.

In the original opinion in the Kansas City stockyards case, written by Chief Justice Hughes, the court held that Wallace had failed to give a fair hearing before ordering reduction in rates charged by commission men at the stockyards.

REVERSAL ALLEGED

The court held that Wallace had accepted findings of government investigators without giving the commission men a chance to present evidence or argument.

Taking the case to the newspapers, Wallace publicly charged that Chief Justice Hughes had changed his mind. The court, he said, reversed a two-year-old decision which upheld his procedure.

In its petition for rehearing, the government contended the court had reversed itself and that a "procedural omission previously held to be of no significance now is regarded as 'fatally defective.'"

An official statement was made that the Mooney petition was not acted upon because of the voluminous record. The court presumably will study the record during the summer and hand down a ruling in October.

Revere Probe Witnesses

CALLED BY JURY—Josephine E. Farrell, Revere city auditor, and Joseph Pearson, electrician, wait to be called before the "blue ribbon" grand jury now investigating rackets and racketeering in Revere.

More Revere Indictments Due Today

More indictments out of the "blue ribbon" grand jury probe into Revere rackets were anticipated today when two assistant attorneys-general and one assistant district attorney were closeted in the room following the calling of two witnesses.

The two witnesses heard after the resumption today were Arthur Gagnon of Revere and former State Trooper John Tufts, who was the "undercover man" who procured evidence resulting in the raiding of the Ruby and North Shore clubs, alleged horse-betting establishments.

Nearly an hour after they had emerged from the room no other witnesses had been called, but Assistant Attorneys-General John S. Derham and Maurice Goldman and Assistant District Attorney Garrett H. Byrne remained inside.

There were nearly 50 witnesses on hand when the probe resumed today, one being Miss Josephine E. Farrell, Revere city auditor who was Mayor James E. O'Brien's secretary when he was city treasurer.

Plymouth Rock Painter Guilty

PLYMOUTH, May 31.—Found guilty of having smeared historic Plymouth Rock with red paint on May 8, Stanley E. Bakewell of Gibsonia, Pa., faced a possible jail sentence here today.

Bakewell's counsel told the court that the paint-daubing was "just a prank."

But Judge Elmer L. Briggs didn't smile as he announced that he would impose sentence tomorrow.

Police told how they traced Bakewell to Pennsylvania, after connecting him with the vandalism through clues as to the type of paint used and the glass jar container.

Citizens vs. Mrs. Clark

Glass House
Is 'Goldfish Bowl'

With the nation's No. 1 bridal only 18 days away, the problem of obtaining privacy for Mrs. F. Haven Clark, her daughter, Anne Clark, and John Roosevelt, son of the President, in the Clark modernistic home atop Nahant cliffs, became increasingly complex today.

Alarmed by a crowd of 5000 Memorial Day sightseers who swarmed about the house yesterday, to catch a glimpse of Anne and John, "America's sweetheart," Mrs. Clark sought police protection.

WALK UP CLIFF

Local authorities placed officers at the road leading to the pink stucco house and barred traffic an eighth of a mile away, but eager "trespassers" walked up the cliff way from the road and were afforded a fairly close view of the glass-walled home's interior.

Police explained they were empowered only to ban actual trespass on the estate grounds. Citizens, they pointed out, are entitled to citizens' rights despite the importance of the persons concerned.

When the President arrives on June 18, with Secret Service ciphers on hand, restrictions may be imposed more severely, but until that date only routine measures can be taken.

SURVEY MADE

Colonel Edward W. Starling, chief of the White House secret service detail, arrived with three assistants yesterday and made a special survey of the home, the church where the wedding ceremony will take place, and the Tennis Club, where the reception will be held.

John accompanied Colonel Starling on the survey and made several suggestions which he was sure his father would approve.

The President's yacht, it is expected, will be unable to anchor in Nahant because of the tides, and will tie up at Charlestown navy yard, the President being escorted to Nahant by a police cavalcade.

Appendicitis' Toll
In Big Increase,
Doctors Told

Neglect to pneumonia and accidents, appendicitis stands as one of the fundamental causes of a rising mortality rate in the United States, Dr. William E. Ladd of Children's Hospital said today at the 157th meeting of the Massachusetts Medical Society.

More than 500 physicians attended the opening of a three-day conference at Hotel Bradford.

Dr. Ladd said fatal appendicitis cases were increasing so rapidly that in 10 years, as cause of death, they have risen from sixth to third place.

He added:

"More than 20,000 persons died in the United States last year from appendicitis. It is one of the highest mortality rates in the world."

"Chief causes are lack of early diagnosis, and the indiscriminate use of laxatives which cause severe abdominal pains."

Other papers were read on the subject by Drs. Irving G. Walker and Arthur M. Shipley of Boston. General chairman is Dr. Leland McKittick of Boston.

Study in Court! Tech Boys Held, Miss Exams

Six Massachusetts Institute of Technology students faced Judge Robert Walcott in East Cambridge district court today and obtained continuances of their cases until Thursday.

They were arrested last night following a "riot," called one of the worst in M. I. T. history.

Added to their discomfiture today was the fact that their court appearances coincided with the hour set for final examinations at the institute. Thus they missed their exams in addition to whatever disciplinary action may be taken by M. I. T. authorities. And on top of all this, they still face the court proceedings.

34 Graduate In 'Tragedy School'

NEW LONDON, Tex., May 31

(AP)—New London graduated 34 high school seniors from its $400,000 school building last night. Four miles away, in Pleasant Hill cemetery, lay the bodies of 25 of the seniors' classmates, victims of the explosion that wrecked their old building and left 24 dead.

Senior week was as gay as at any other school, but the year-book devoted a page to the statement:

"In loving memory of those who were taken from us March 18, 1937."

Max Holleman smiled as he passed the torch of scholarship on to the Juniors, forgetting for the moment that his 11-year-old sister was carried dead from the wreckage.

Winnifred Diamond, class president, had suffered internal injuries and a wrenched back but won honors in journalism, citizenship and scholarship.

Britain Fears Nazi 'Rebirth'

By KARL H. VON WIEGAND
Dean of American War Correspondents
Copyright 1938, by International News Service

BERLIN, May 31—Behind the German-Czech war scare there is something far bigger than 3,500,000 Sudetens of German stock.

Great Britain, who would not fight Italy for her empire interests in the Mediterranean and in East Africa, will not go to war with Germany for the democracy of central Europe or for the beautiful eyes of the Czechoslovakians.

What, in the last analysis, got Britain so stirred up is the sudden realization of the renaissance of Germany to her pre-world war "drang nach Osten," her "drive eastward," and the powerful new impulse given that movement and objective by the easy absorption of Austria.

Between Germany and Great Britain there is breaking out again the old pre-war rivalry in Turkey for influence and economic advantages. The British do not want the Germans near the Dardanelles.

again, which conceivably might endanger Britain's flank in the eastern Mediterranean.

SOVIETS OUT

Kemal Attaturk has practically ousted all Soviet Russian influence from Turkey and is now playing Germany and Britain against each other.

Germany furnished the big guns which guard the Dardanelles, the new fortifications and mines and heavy artillery at other points.

Germany now has suffered a sharp setback in Turkey. Aroused by Chancellor Hitler's Austrian coup, Britain granted Turkey $50,000,000 credits for machinery for industrial projects, which has been followed up by the British government guaranteeing credits extended by British shipbuilding yards and war industries for warships, guns and war materials ordered by Turkey in England.

In rivalry for another big Turkish project, the German munition firm of Krupp, I learn, has just lost again, because of underbidding by the British.

German trade is fully on the upswing in the Balkans. Chipping off a corner of Czechoslovakia not only will add the strength of 3,500,000 Germans to Germany but also will remove a spear in Germany's left flank.

High Nazi circles have openly asserted that the German-Czech question is now developing into a test of power—a test "whether England or Germany is going to be the dominant power in Central Europe."

Sheriff Held in Morals Case

NORWAY, Me., May 31—Francis M. Carroll, former deputy sheriff, pleaded not guilty in district court today to an immorality charge involving one of his immediate relatives, when arraigned before Judge Harry M. Shaw.

Before Judge Shaw read the warrant, Carroll stepped to the bench, and requested the judge to waive the reading. Judge Shaw ordered Carroll back to the prisoner's dock, and proceeded to read the warrant.

Carroll then pleaded not guilty, and asked time to retain a lawyer. The case was continued for 10 days, for further investigation. Carroll was held in $20,000 bail.

Quake Jars Coast Cities

LOS ANGELES, May 31 (AP)—A sharp earthquake lasting several seconds jarred Southern California cities today.

The rippling motion, sidewise in character, was felt from the beach towns along the Pacific to the San Bernardino mountains.

No damage was reported, but thousands were awakened.

Long Beach, a center of the disastrous earthquake of 1933, which killed scores, experienced three distinct shocks but police were informed of no property damage.

$12,500? Pouf! Pin Money!

MATTHEW KENNY AND BABY MARY ANNE
She'll Grow Up 'Just Like Old Man'

TORONTO, May 31 (Canadian Press)—Salesmen are bearing down on the prize winners in the Millar will stork derby, with vacuum cleaners and pictures of bungalows, with deeds to farms and automobiles ready for delivery.

Four women, who tied with nine children each in the 10-year contest, were paid off yesterday with checks of $100,000 each. Two other contestants, who failed to establish claims in court, received $12,500 each on condition they drop pending appeals.

The salesmen started in at once, with fountain pens loaded and dotted lines ready for signatures.

A truck pulled up yesterday before Judge Nagle's house with a big soft and two chairs, ready to move it. A few minutes later it was parked near the John MacLean home.

Salesmen hustled from these two homes to the other two major winners, the Alfred Smiths and the Arthur Timlicks, and soon the four families locked the doors.

It wasn't as tough, though, at the Matthew Kennys' in Adelaide street. Mrs. Kenney got only $12,500 when she dropped her plans to appeal. Mrs. Kenney wasn't home, but her husband was.

"You're getting $12,500," he was consoled.

"Just pin money," Kenny replied. "Nothing under $25,000 would do us any good. Why, by the time we pay what we owe and buy stuff, there won't be nothing."

He added: "We've got the smartest family in Toronto—they're going to grow up to be just like their old man."

Boy Bandit Talked Out of Holdup Held

John H. Howatt, 24-year-old salesman, admitted in police lineup today he was the bandit "talked out" of a holdup on March 4 by Miss Corinne Gagnon, 24, employee of the College Laundry Association in Massachusetts avenue, Back Bay.

Howatt, picked up by police in a rooming house in Appleton street, South End, was charged with assault and battery and attempted robbery. He told detectives it was he who brandished a toy pistol at Miss Gagnon, then weakened and confessed it was a toy gun. Miss Gagnon lectured him about the folly of crime and told him to "run along."

Kelly's $50,000 Suit Faces Delay

Trial of Lieutenant Governor Francis E. Kelly's $50,000 libel suit against Dr. David L. Williams probably will not come up until 1940, due to the crowded condition of the Suffolk superior court docket, Attorney Samuel Green, counsel for Kelly, said today.

Twenty interrogatories were filed by Kelly's counsel today. Dr. Williams, former commissioner of the state department of mental diseases, has 20 days within which to answer. The suit, originally filed May 21 in municipal court in the hope of an early trial, was transferred to the superior court at the behest of Dr. Williams' attorneys on May 23.

Farley Fights Hopkins in N. Y.

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 31—A powerful alliance of Democrats has been formed here to keep Harry L. Hopkins, WPA administrator, from becoming the Democratic nominee for governor of New York this fall, it was learned today.

The alliance is so strong it brought together two such lukewarm "friends" as Democratic National Chairman James A. Farley and Senator Royal S. Copeland of the Empire State.

BRAIN TRUST BACKING

Both urge the nomination of Governor Herbert H. Lehman, with Senator Robert F. Wagner as second choice. Both are unalterably opposed to the nomination of Hopkins. Only a year ago they were at sword points, with Farley fighting Copeland's bid for New York city's mayoralty.

Hopkins' boom was reported launched by the "inner circle" of President Roosevelt's advisers. One authority said Hopkins, supported by Thomas G. Corcoran and Ben Cohen, brain-trusters, hoped to gain control of the New York state administration, in order to have a larger voice in the 1940 convention.

The battle against allowing Hopkins any wider political influence will come to a head in the Senate this week, through Democratic efforts to limit his handling of relief funds for relieving human distress. An amendment has been offered by Senator Hatch (D.) of New Mexico, to the $2,247,000,000 expenditure bill, which would ban any political activity in the relief administration under threat of instant dismissal from government service.

A coalition of Democrats and Republicans will support the amendment. Some of them believe they have a chance for adoption.

CHARGE AGAINST WPA

Opposition will be led by Senator Barkley, Democratic leader, whose own renomination to the Senate is being contested in Kentucky by Governor A. B. "Happy" Chandler. Chandler's campaign managers have charged Hopkins is using the WPA in Kentucky as a political organization to aid Barkley.

Barkley said he opposed the amendment because it would ban Federal employees from playing politics, while leaving State employees free for political activity. This was a barb at the Kentucky State employees who are helping Chandler.

Fresh Senate attacks on Hopkins are anticipated, based on his intervention in the Iowa Democratic senatorial race, where he endorsed Representative Otha Wearinger against Senator Guy M. Gillette. Belief prevailed in Senate circles Gillette would be renominated.

RATTLES ELSEWHERE
Democratic foes of Hopkins will watch his activities in all future Democratic primaries. There is one in North Carolina Saturday, where Senator Bob Reynolds is seeking renomination against Representative Franklin W. Hancock, a New Dealer. Reynolds has been a faithful New Dealer, too. So Administration policies are not considered an issue.

In Indiana and South Carolina, the story is different. On July 12, Indiana Democrats meet in state convention to select a senatorial nominee. The whole Democratic state organization, with vetted support from the White House, is fighting Senator Fredrick Van Nuys.

The South Carolina battle, with voting August 30, has Senator Ellison D. "Cotton Ed" Smith booked by the New Deal for defeat. He is opposed by Governor Olin D. Johnston, a New Dealer, who announced his candidacy on the White House steps two weeks ago. Smith retaliated by invading a Johnston luncheon at the capital and telling the governor face to face, he would be the "worst whipped man in South Carolina."

Kidneys Must Clean Out Acids

Your kidneys clean out acids and poisonous matter from your blood.
If they fail, you are in danger. The kidneys are the most important organs in your body. They filter out the waste products of your metabolism and excrete them in the urine. If they fail, the waste products build up in your blood and poison your body.
You must keep your kidneys clean and healthy. The best way to do this is to drink plenty of water and eat a diet low in salt and sugar. You should also avoid alcohol and tobacco. If you have any symptoms of kidney trouble, such as back pain, swelling, or changes in your urine, you should see a doctor at once.

"YOU SHOULD SEE WHAT I SAW WHERE CAMELS ARE MADE"

BY Eddie Cantor

AMERICA'S LAUGH KING, Eddie Cantor, has his serious, thoughtful moments too. His uproarious "Cantor's Camel Caravan" broadcasts (every Monday night over the Columbia Network) command respect because of his sincerity in his work. And Eddie's truly sincere about his self-termed job of "Camel Radio Salesman." Says salesman Cantor, "Everything isn't too much to know about a cigarette like Camel." And so Eddie took a trip to Winston-Salem, home of Camel cigarettes. Here is what he saw—

"HELLO EVERYBODY! Here I am in Camel town. Am I happy? Everybody looks so happy—so content! You'll think it's here of the 13000 Reynolds workers and the plant. And so, thousands of them are owners—they've got Camel stock! And they really get fun out of making Camels. Maybe that's a reason people get so much fun out of smoking Camels. Wouldn't you like to work here? Nobody's been had if it's times on 12 years. When the whistle blows, all the folks in the place are right on the job. And they have only one job: making Camel's and that more people smoke than any other cigarette. You—this is everybody's job! Camel! Imagine a place like this Camel plant. Two hundred security men guard. When you're sick, you get a free healthy check each week. If you do, your family is protected by insurance. When you reach retirement under the Reynolds plan the company sends you a check each month for the rest of your life. It's certainly great to be a Camel worker! COSTLIER TOBACCOS? Has Camel got costlier tobacco? Listen—I'm looking at it, folks, in the next picture. And there's a hundred more than I could tell you. Right here at Winston-Salem, I say thousands and thousands of huge loads of these finer tobaccos, coming in long, impressive-looking buildings about three miles off from the plant. That tobacco looks so g-o-o-d, smells so g-o-o-d. If you're smoking a Camel, you're smoking some of these finer, costlier tobaccos right now. How do they keep this tobacco just right, the way you like it? They make the work room 'weather' themselves with a wonderful air-conditioning plant. And, besides, they actually wash the air every few minutes. Do the Camel folks like to work in that place? In the last picture, I'm watching these costlier Camel tobaccos going into the cigarettes, millions and billions of them! There's a lot of pleasure in one of these pictures; I said to myself—IN FACT, YOU CAMEL PEOPLE AND I ARE REALLY IN THE SAME BUSINESS—MAKING MORE PLEASURE FOR MORE PEOPLE!"

Have a Camel! See for yourself why there's more real pleasure—more out-and-out enjoyment—in Camel's matchless blend of finer, more expensive tobaccos—Turkish and Domestic.

See why tobacco planters, men who grow and know tobacco, make Camel their cigarette. You'll say, as millions of smokers do, "Camels agree with me." Camel is America's largest-selling cigarette!

Frank Lloyd has a story about Captain Bligh, the character Laughton is to portray in "Mutiny on the Bounty."

Frank naturally can see nobody but Laughton in the role, but he is not so sure there is little chance of the actor returning to America. Lloyd plans to take his story to England and make it a story with Laughton in the lead, and if necessary, to make him a member of his production in Hollywood.

THERE was often the first kind of beauty, good-looking faces, the girl of the 19th century was fat and clumsy, dressed her hair with French or powdered it soft, from a red white skin, but that takes into consideration before and after treatment we've found.

Further down the street, we will find a small, one-story building that has been converted into a parking garage. The building is made of brick and has a flat roof. It is surrounded by a low wall and a few trees. The building is located on the corner of the street and is the only building of its kind in the area. It is a very interesting sight and is worth a visit.

Biff Skyrockets To Swift Fame

What Has Happened:

Biff Brown talented clarinetist left Harvard and quarreled with Conservatory of Music sweetheart Harriet Cardale because he wants to become a professional swing musician. Harriet hates swing, trained as she is in the beauty and traditions of classic music.

Tommy Dorsey first met Brown when the former's band played at a swank Harvard dance, where Biff was permitted to turn his schoolmates into "admirers" with a solo that even delighted Maestro Dorsey and his expert swimmers.

Six months later Biff went to New York City. Dorsey took him in tow and is trying to find a "service" stick job for him, when the maestro conducts a crisis in his own rehearsal room.

Now Continue:

CHAPTER SEVEN

Except for a wind tide stirring over the handstand, the supper room was dark as midnight. Biff, tipping after me.

The men instead of being on their feet, their instruments were grouped in a circle under the stand.

In the center were Happy Howie, the second sax, and Cliff De Lewis, a saxophone.

For some months now there had been bad blood between Howie and Lewis over a quarrel with Sid Baker's Dixie Jugglers.

Lewis, whom I disliked intensely because he was always trying to push something, I thought the world had been treating this weather until Howie, a considerably older man, had stepped in.

Ross, Armstrong Try Again Tonight

BEES HURLERS MASTERS

You can give long odds that Lewy Stengel was in rare form exactly until the two hours this morning after his Bees bunched off the Giants in both ends of the holiday double header. . . In their last three games at home, the Bees exhibited almost flawless pitching. . . They yielded only one run in 31 innings. . . When high grade curve ball pitchers like Lou Fette, Jim Turner and Danny MacFadden have their control, the Bees are better than an even bet to beat any club in the National League. . . Present day major league pitchers cannot hit.

Two. . . "Tiny" Moran and Kurth, who um-bill here, are their over-cult by auto. They are the road to-burgh. . . Bil-auphawed for dropped into Na-to say "Hello" to the curb-old days, Burke among the top-notchers. . . Larry McPhail hasn't had much experience with the cool summer nights along the Atlantic coast line, and he may "blow" the Bluburns. . . Night ball is a joke regardless of the quality of the lights. . . McPhail, to the contrary notwithstanding. . . Moreover, if it's hot in the East, the public flocks to beaches, not ball parks.

WELTER KING STILL RULES 7-5 CHOICE

By JACK CONWAY

NEW YORK, May 31 (AP)—Ross will risk his world welterweight boxing championship against Henry Armstrong in a twice postponed 15-round bout in the Garden Bowl at Long Island tonight.

The betting element refuses to become too much concerned with the weather problem, and is trying to fix the right price for the battle. . . Ross still rules a 7 to 5 favorite with the chances that the odds will be only 6 to 5 in his favor by ring time.

Ross is getting his support from the rank and file of boxing fans who believe he has too much class and competitive ability for the brilliant Armstrong.

Tells How Sharkey At Lacy Has Way Stopped Right Hand To Beat Schmeling

By JACK CONWAY

AL LACY of Chelsea, who trained Jack Sharkey for both of his bouts with Max Schmeling, was talking about the German's famous right-hand punch.

"Schmeling has one of the greatest righthand wallops in the boxing game, but it can be stymied," said Lacy. "Schmeling and Sharkey fought twice, and Max has yet to hit Jack with a right-hand punch to the jaw."

"The Schmeling right can be made useless if Louis adopts the proper defense against it. For Schmeling to score effectively with his right hand, he must cock the punch. As he does this, he pulls his right hand back and lifts it three or four inches above his shoulder."

"The average boxer looks dead straight at his opponent, and when Schmeling cocks his right, the gloved fist gets out of the line of vision unless one is careful. I think this is why Schmeling was able to throw his right over Louis' left in their last bout."

"Before Sharkey's first tussle with Schmeling, we figured out the way to stop the German's right was to jab to the face and then move away. This would make it necessary for Schmeling to drop his right back into position again. Every time Schmeling would move his right back for the smallest margin, Sharkey would hit him with his left hand and move. You cannot hit an opponent with a right hand if he is moving away from you, especially if you must first cock the punch."

"Sharkey made Schmeling look like a novice in their first bout. When Schmeling was getting beaten badly, he went down and claimed a foul."

"In the second bout, Schmeling tried to offset Sharkey's left with his own left. He was not equal to the task, and at one spot during the bout he was hit 18 straight left jabs without scoring a return."

"Louis has the tools with which to beat Schmeling if he will use them. The champion has an exceptionally good left jab, can hook with his left and has a smashing right-hand punch."

"The champion can retain his title if he jabs and moves. If he stands flatfooted and walks in as he misses, Schmeling has a chance to knock him out again."

Mr. Boston

Schmeling Lacking in Fear

EVEN BEFORE he knocked Louis out, Schmeling did not fear the "Brown Bomber." He worked in and took Louis best punches to get into position to land his own blows.

Max Baer and Primo Carnera were in fear of Louis' punches before they entered the ring. They kept running away, which made it perfect for Louis. He knew neither Baer nor Carnera were going to take any unnecessary risks in throwing punches, and so he and set his own pace as he worked up toward a knock-out.

Schmeling will have even more confidence in himself in the coming bout. He now knows his whipping power resultant to stop Louis if he can score with it.

The German arrived in the United States in excellent physical condition. Max has always been a capital of his condition. During the past year he has engaged in four bouts. He had a training period of a month before each contest and, as a result, he has kept fit. He is almost down to fighting weight now, is fast, while his timing of punches is exceptionally good.

Lefty Grove Recalls Tricks of Old Mound Aces

By LEFTY GROVE

As Told to Austen Lake CHAPTER VII

SOME years ago when American League umpires were ordered by the late Ernest Barnard, then president to provide themselves with a leather pouch and a good strong padlock on it to keep the baseballs between games, it was reported that cheating had been going on and that the measure was one of protection against overnight tampering with the balls.

That was not the case. It was simply to guard against the disappearance of the balls, which by that time had come to be an enormous item in the club's expense.

But in the earlier days a certain few pitchers were known to get to the balls left overnight in the umpire's room and to doctor them, perhaps by making almost invisible little nicks between the stitches or by putting a vitrolina needle under the seams.

The next day knowing how to handle such a ball, they would play hob with the batters.

Emery cloth concealed in the glove, oil, sharpened buckle on the back of the glove, powdered emery dusted on the uniform shirt, notched thumb nails and a lot of dodger—too numerous to mention, were used by some of the older pitchers who knew they could no longer get by on honest methods.

In view of Mickey Cochrane's beating by a Bump Hadley sauer last year it is only fair to say that new balls fresh from the tinfol will sometimes sail as much as 18 inches.

Pedals a ball will be slightly defective, so slight that even the factory inspector's instruments will not detect the flaw. The stitches may be a little higher on one side than on the other. The cover may be a thousandth of an inch thicker at one point.

Sometimes I will be given a new ball, and the minute my hand closes over it I will know it is lighter or smaller than the exact standard, perhaps as little as a sixteenth of an ounce or an eighth inch in circumference.

You might not think that a man's hand could become sensitive enough to detect so small a difference, but when you have batted thousands of balls each season you come to be quite a judge of a ball's weight and measurement.

Often a new ball will sail for me quite without any intention on my part, and I can recall a number of times that the batter has demanded to inspect the ball and he has stood there quite solemnly revolving it in his hand, looking for a rough spot, only to shake his head and hand it back to the catcher.

However, it is no trick to make a new ball sail since you only have to tighten the hold of one top finger, lighten up on the other and let the ball glide out at medium speed.

I never sail a ball intentionally—'cause I cannot tell whether it will sail more or little and so cannot control it.

(The final interesting article by Lefty Grove will appear on these pages tomorrow.) (Copyright, 1938, by the Boston Evening American.)

Robert On Edge For Clark

Yvon Robert spent the holiday preparing for his important battle with George (Dazzler) Clark in half of a twin bill at Boston Garden tomorrow night.

Carrying a thick coat of tan, the result of outdoor work at Camp Maupas, Robert went through a bristling workout in the Charles town Y. M. C. A. gymnasium.

"Don't worry—I'm going to pulverize that Scotchman tomorrow night," Robert confides to his friends. "He has been doing a lot of popping off, but he'll have little to say after the match."

"And when I finish with Clark I want another crack at Casey," Clark took a spirited workout, too, and appears right on edge for tomorrow night's battle.

The Scotchman is confident he'll knock Robert out of a shot with Casey. Both Richard Shikat, rugged German, and Pietro Gobbo, unseasoned Italian, went through hard sessions Shikat worked at the Union gymnasium and Gobbo trained in private. They collide in the other half of tomorrow night's double-windup.

League Enters 7th Round

By BILL GRIMES

Usually at this stage of Boston Four Ball League campaign, Brae Burn, The Country Club and Charles River have pulled so far out in front of the other contenders that the race has dwindled down to a two or three team battle.

But, going into the seventh round today there are two dark horses up at the top, Oakley and Woodland with The Country Club and Brae Burn pressing close on their heels.

In fact, the current race is so close—the closest in the history of Pres. "Pop" Weed's organization—that Oakley, the pacemaker, is but THREE points better off than the fourth place club, Brae Burn.

Capt. A. H. Pierce will take his Brae Burnites over to Oakley this afternoon. Due to the fact that Oakley is playing on its home course and has a three point edge over its opponents, Brae Burn must click to the extent of winning by better than a 9 to 8 margin, which is a real assignment, in order to pass the current leaders.

While Oakley and Brae Burn are battling, Woodland will be at Charles River, trying to annex enough points to take over the lead. Frank Craven's Charles River aggregation has not been up to standard this season and as a result is down in seventh place. Trailing Oakley by one point, and believing that Brae Burn will stop the pacemakers, Capt. Joe Fay hopes to field the strongest aggregation that has represented Woodland this Spring.

The Country Club, which is in third place, will be watching, particularly if Allan V. Ellis, who is playing in the qualifying round of the United States open championship at Longmeadow, returns in time to get into action for the Clyde Parkers at Winchester.

Ellis plans to hop in a plane, as soon as he has completed his two rounds at Longmeadow, and Bobby Knowles will meet him at the East Boston airport. In the event that he gets into trouble at Longmeadow and tosses away his chances of qualifying, Ellis intends to pick up and head for Winchester as early as possible.

'How I Was Yanked' Cronin's Own Story

Fighting Joe Cronin, manager of the Red Sox, reveals his own story of yesterday's Yankee Stadium fracas with Jake Powell, exclusively to Walter Kiley. "It was my job to protect McKain, and I'd do it again," was Manager Joe's comment.

Red Sox Manager

AS TOLD TO WALTER KILEY

NEW YORK, May 31 — When Jake Powell, Yankee outfielder, walked up to the pitcher's box, challenged Archie McKain and threatened to punch him, I just couldn't let him get away with it.

After all, McKain is my pitcher, and I wasn't going to see anybody giving him a tossing.

I remember running in on McKain and Powell. But just exactly what happened or if anything was said I can't recall. We were both too hot under the collar and seeing red.

I don't know either whether Powell hit me first or I hit him. But I do know that we went right to it in front of the pitcher's box.

Sacrifice Hits—That's what Joe Cronin, manager of Red Sox, calls punches he swapped with Jake Powell, Yankee outfielder, in their battle of the Stadium. Cronin says he rushed in where umpires fear to tread when Powell swung at Archie McKain, Red Sox moundsman. He vows he did so just to protect his teammate. Photo shows Powell poking at McKain as Joe entered fray. Both were barred from game and payoff is to come.
